TO OUR PATRONS AND FRIENDS

A number of Ice Plants over the country have found after careful examination of their books that it cost them about 10 per cent to charge and collect their retail Ice accounts. As a result they are rapidly placing their retail business on a cash basis.

Our own experience being in line with the above and believing that this 10 per cent cost is an unwarranted loss, we have decided to do likewise. However, we do not expect to add this 10 per cent to our profits; but will reduce our prices accordingly, so as to give the benefit of the saving to our patrons.

Therefore beginning March 15th, 1915 we will conduct our entire retail business strictly for cash and the following reductions will be made on Ice Coupon Books.

400 lb Book, Old Price $2.50 less 10 per cent, New Price $2.25

1000 lb Book, Old Price $5.00 less 10 per cent, New Price $4.50

2000 lb Book, Old Price $9.00 less 10 per cent, New Price $8.10

It is our purpose to render the best service possible and to this end we will welcome suggestions and the co-operation of our patrons. Respt.

This spring, the principal interest of the world centers in the European battlefields, where the awakening of nature is expected to bring about a revival of hostilities on a scale of destructiveness which will make all that has gone before seem trifling in comparison.

With the parcels post in operation and the big mail order houses flooding the country with catalogues and price lists of their goods and wares, it behooves the local merchants to put on considerable more steam in their newspaper advertising or be the losers by failure to do so.

Go to the picture shows and see the great serial pictures and the hilarious western comedies full of cowboys and bucking broncos, tales of romance adventure and tragedy, also the spectacular Jungle-Zoo and a horde of wild beasts—all in action. No need to spend a dull moment in Lancaster.

Many things this spring will bring us. We may predict with certainty—green grass and blossoming trees and variegated circus posters and baseball and Easter millinery bills and gurgling brooks and garden aase and spring poetry and sweetvoiced songsters and cooing lovers and other flora and fauna.

It is amazing how mad our modern world is after amusement. The feudal lord kept his fool, who was anything but a simpleton, but our modern world is content with nothing that is not highly spiced with entertainment. Our preachers must have their stories, our professors must be clever as well as learned, and our evangelists (God forgive us) must be vulgar before our attention is much attracted.

EXCHANGE.

The ladies, of the Baptist Church, will have an exchange at W. B. Ball's grocery store the Saturday before Easter. They will have everything good to eat. Let them do your baking.

RURAL DELIVERY CRISIS.

The system of rigid economy which has been inaugurated in the Post-office Department threatens to bring about a crisis in the rural free delivery service. The abolition of routes which are not self-sustaining is indicated in a letter to Postmaster General Burleson from Chairman Moon, of the House Committee on Post Roads.

MOONLIGHT SCHOOLS OPEN.

Three moonlight schools opened in Danville last week. One is located on Maple avenue, the second on East Broadway, and the third at Salvation Army headquarters. All were fairly well attended, while many more students are to be enrolled. Considerable interest has been awakened, and the indications are most favorable for a large attendance and splendid work.

FIVE GENERATIONS.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Ward of this county are the proud parents of a son born March 16th. Doubtless the young man will get all the petting that is due him as he has more ancestors living than usually falls to ones lot on entering this "vale of tears". Besides his mother and father he has a grand-mother and father and a great-grand-mother and father, and a great-great-grand-mother and father, he making the fifth living generation. Luck to him.

CLEAN-UP DAYS.

The state health authorities have designated Friday and Saturday, April 16 and 17, as "Clean-Up Days," and the city officials, acting in conjunction with the Civic Department of the Woman's Club, have given assurance that they will help in a systematic cleaning of the town, which will mean better health, purer air, fewer flies and a much more attractive town. The woman's club is also determined that hogs shall not be tolerated in town as they were last spring.

A TOWN OF "JINERS".

Lancaster has always been active in societies and organization. Truly, this could be called a town of "jinners" and an ordinarily active person may be an officer in a dozen organizations.

To our church and fraternal orders and philanthropic societies, has been added what is known as the Puget Sound Fish Club, with R. L. Elkin, Pres., L. G. Davidson, Secty., and S. F. Hughes, Treasurer. The purpose and work of this club which is, of course, commendable, will be stated after the work of the club is better organized.

CIRCUIT COURT ADJOURNS.

The three weeks term of the Garrard Circuit Court adjourned finally last Saturday. From a financial standpoint it cost the state less than any court that had been held in the county for years. The smallest list of claims ever filed in any court here, jury claims, witness claims and claims from all sources amounting to less than $1,000. Circuit Clerk Mason, says that if business doesn't pick up his friends will have to take care of him, or else he will land in the pauper institution. The grand jury returned a total of 46 indictments, forty of which were for misdemeanors and six felony cases.

FIRST DAY OF SPRING.

Sunday marked the beginning of Spring. In the northern hemisphere the vernal equinox, the point at which Old Sol in his annual apparent course crosses the equator on his northward journey, was due Sunday, and although the weather man gave us Snow, and Sunday night gave us still more snow, we are told King Winter's back is broken. King Winter will not give up the fight without a determined struggle. He is a crafty general, and he will make many an unexpected sally and fire many a broadside from his big guns before he leads his defeated forces across Canada and Newfoundland to the ice-girt fastnesses, where he bides his time until ready for another onslaught on the lands of the South.

SPRING OPENINGS.

Never have we seen a more beautiful display of hats, dry goods and notions than our Lancaster merchants displayed last Saturday. They did their part and if the weather man had given them better weather the day would have been perfect.

The Dry Goods Stores of the Joseph Mercantile Co., J. E. Dickerson and the Busy Cash Store of G. M. Lyons vied with each other in beautiful windows and attractive goods. Delightful musical programs were rendered at Joseph's and Dickerson's, carnations were also given away by some of the enterprising merchants.

The hats were too beautiful and artistic for a "mean man" to describe but very pleasing to look at. Altogether it was a gala day for Lancaster.

EYESTRAIN HEADACHES.

RELIEVED.

Dr. Byrne's Drugless, Painless Test, and Scientifically Glasses will do the work. Now at Kengarian Hotel, Lancaster, will remain until April 3rd.

Preaching At Pleasant Grove.

H. W. Elliott of Sulphur will preach Sunday morning and evening at Pleasant Grove church and all are cordially invited to hear him.

MANUAL TRAINING EXHIBIT.

So much interest has been shown in the manual training and domestic science department of the graded school, that an exhibit of this work will be displayed at the school building Friday afternoon, from three to four o'clock. Display of other work from the different grades will also be shown and the public and all patrons of the school are invited to attend this exhibit.

William Renner.

This handsome picture is a capital likeness of William Renner, one of the contestants for the Pony and Cart. He is a hustler and has gotten out some unique cards announcing the fact he wants his friends to vote for him. He also says he is one of the great common people and is pushing his candidacy on that platform. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Renner and a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. R. Zimmer, of this city.

Aleene Thomas.

This little girl is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Thomas and is an enthusiastic worker for the Pony Outfit. She is securing votes all over the county and has brought many new subscribers to the Central Record. Her friends are working hard for her and hope to see her land the coveted prize.

Send In Your Picture.

So many of the contestants in the Pony Contest have asked that their pictures be run in the Central Record, and to be fair and impartial to all, we will run each contestants picture and a little local free, provided however the cut is furnished us. The cut will cost one dollar. Bring us your picture and we will have cut made and run two or more of the contestants each week until the contest closes.

THE PROBLEM OF THE UNEMPLOYED.

The United States Government can solve the problem of the unemployed by establishing under the Department of Labor an Employment Bureau and by having the right kind of Immigration Laws.

Our government was established to promote the general welfare not only of one citizen or class of citizens, but for every person born or naturalized in it. Every person who has not a sufficient income to live as he thinks best prepares himself to make a living in some trade, occupation or profession. The work that he has prepared himself to do is not found at his door at all times, or perhaps at any time. He must work or starve; but how can he do the work he has fitted himself to do, if the work cannot be found? The work can be found, perhaps not in his immediate vicinity or county; but if there is a trade, occupation or profession, there is just as certainly a demand for employees in it. All the positions are not filled in all places at all times or perhaps at any time. A United States Employment Bureau under the Department of Labor is necessary to give to the employer and the employee information as to where each can be found; both the employer and the employee having registered with the bureau with sufficient information and sufficient recommendations to make the contract on the part of each perfectly safe. This bureau should have an office in one or more of the principal cities of the union; if in only one, then a central city would be preferable. A State Bureau of Employment might very profitably to the state be run on the same plan as given above.

Long have I seen the Unemployed, and many of them very worthy searching for work. I, too, have been among the restless throng, consequently the "Problem of the Unemployed" has been many times before me. My experience in seeing the unemployed is not confined to one state, since I have taught and gone to school in eight states of the union and visited and traveled in a number of others. I have been in some of the leading cities of our country, and have seen the Unemployed in many trades, occupations and professions.

The Unemployed are, if not already in, soon reduced to poverty; either by staying where they are and hoping for an opening, or by wandering from place to place searching for work; this unfortunate condition of affairs is brought about, not by there being no work of their kind; but because they knew not where to find it, hence the need of an Employment Bureau under the Department of Labor.

Virgie R. Worrell.

MOONLIGHT SCHOOL CONTESTS CLOSE.

The contests between teachers and trustees for the prizes offered by Kentucky's statesmen for the best moonlight school were very warm ones, many being in close competition for the prizes. The reports of teachers and letters from adults who had been taught to write showed excellent results for the sessions of 1914.

Adair County captured the grand prize, $50.00 offered by Senator Ollie M. James for the best moonlight school in Kentucky. Mrs. W. L. Russell was the winner.

McCreary and Hardin Counties won the $50.00 prize of Senator J. N. Camden to the trustee who best promoted the moonlight school work. W. P. Johnson, trustee at Barren Fork, McCreary County, and Rev. J. A. Fryrear, of Hardin County, tied for the prize and the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission divided the prize between them. Mr. Johnson is an old soldier and fought in the battle of Gettysburg. He climbed a cliff each evening to be in the moonlight school and taught one of the classes. He is 70 years of age. Rev. Fryrear has served 28 years as school trustee, having the longest term of service of any trustee in the State. He is 70 years of age and a Baptist minister. He put forth a heroic effort to make the moonlight school in his district a success.

Congressman W. J. Field's prize of $25.00 for the best moonlight school in the Ninth District was won by Bath County. This was the most heated of all the contests, there being some excellent schools in Mason, Montgomery, Rowan and other counties, which ran the prize school in Bath a close race. Virgil Jones, a young teacher, won the honors for Bath.

Congressman J. Campbell Cantrell's prize of $25.00 for the best moonlight school in the Seventh District was won by Dudley Caudill, of Powell County.

Congressman John W. Langley's prize of $25.00 for the best moonlight school in the Tenth District was won by W. R. Thomas, of Floyd County.

Attorney General James A. Garnett's prize of $10.00 for the best moonlight school in Adair County was awarded to Mrs. W. L. Russell.

State Senator J. R. Zimmerman's prize of $10.00 for the best moonlight school in Bullitt County was awarded to Miss Mary Dawson.

The Bank of Clarkson's prize of $10.00 for the best moonlight school in Grayson County was won by A. K. Witten.

The Kentucky Illiteracy Commission's prizes for the best moonlight school stories were won by the following: first prize, Miss Laura Smythe, Adair County, second prize, Miss Maud Bishop, McCreary County, third prize, Miss Lottie L. Richards, Rowan County.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE.

Josh Billings once said "it is the surprises of life that add most to our pleasures and Josh added that one man would be surprised at the receipt of a legacy while another would be surprised at finding that 'the speckled hen' had come off the nest with fifteen chickens". At any rate, it is from each man's view point what are the most pleasant surprises of life. To have a fish stolen from you during this period of "high cost of living" is one kind of a surprise and to have it handed back to you just at the right psychological moment—when you are ravenously hungry, beautifully cooked with all the trimmings, is another kind of surprise and one calculated to give a man a thrill he experiences only a few times in life. Such has been our surprise, and the "surprise" thanks the surprisers (the polite name for rogues) and wishes to say he is willing to let the matter drop and hopes all parties concerned are willing to do like-wise.

What Cures Eczema?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. D. Prescription, can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. D. D. Prescription.

D. D. D. into our store today, just to talk over the merits of this wonderful Prescription.

Ponce de Leon Failed; His Prize Is Found

Ponce de Leon, the daring explorer, searched among the swamps of Florida for the Fountain of Youth, which the Indians said would restore power and make people young. He did not find it. Thousands of chronic intestinal, bowel and stomach sufferers have written to Geo. H. Mayr, 154 Whiting St., Chicago, in quest of health. They have found it. His remedy, composed of healing vegetable oils from France, has indeed given them back the health of youth.

Why suffer from indigestion, gases on the stomach, fainting spells, torpid liver, constipation and all the evils of a disordered stomach when there is permanent relief here? Mayr's Wonderful Kennedy is sold by leading druggists everywhere with the positive understanding that your money will be refunded without question or quibble if ONE bottle fails to give you absolute satisfaction.

Attention Horsemen!

The influence of the European struggle is everywhere manifest, and is of prime importance in shaping the future plans of the American Horse Business and there is every indication that farmers will take advantage of the situation and breed their mares this spring. The stallion and jack owner who places his animal before the notice of mare owners is the one who will secure the business, and he cannot do it more thoroughly or inexpensively than through the columns of The Central Record.

Foreign demand marked the exhaustion of foreign supply and we may expect the call for our horses to continue long after the war is over. Our advice to mare owners is to breed their mares and to breed them to stallions of merit and proven worth as sires. Avoid the short-sighted policy of patronizing cheap sires.

In addition to our regular list of subscribers, we will send out extra copies of the Record to leading farmers and horse breeders of Kentucky, adjoining States, Southern and Southwestern and Middle Western States. Write or see us for rates.

It makes me wonder as I write. It sure is mighty strange. Why does a man say money's tight When he has some loose change?

The Wise Fool.
"Man was made to mourn," observed the sage.
"That's right," replied the fool. "He has to hustle to pay his rent, and if he can't raise the rent he has to keep on the move."

I am longing for the country, I am longing just to be. Where I can let the whiskers grow upon the face of me; Where I can let my hair grow in a wild and woolly way. And where father does the farmin' and there ain't no board to pay.—Houston Post.

Luke McLuke Says:
When you say that some men are fatheaded fools every man in your audience knows that you are talking about the other fellow.

Some men never forget to take the makings with them when they go out, but they always seem to forget to take any matches.

Ever was about the only woman that ever moved into new quarters and didn't kick about the dirt left by the women who moved out. Shapes is shapes. That's one reason why you never hear of an excelsior factory failing.

It is funny, but it is a fact that most of the men who use perfect grammar are earning $20 per week, and most of the men who say "them things" and other bush league expressions own their own homes and have a substantial bank account.

The old fashioned woman who used to use a whole paper of safety pins when she was dressing now has a daughter who wouldn't know how to use one if she had it.

Before marriage he imagines that it is sentiment that makes her save his love letters, but after marriage he learns better.

You may not believe it, but the girl who has a beam like a battleship doesn't eat half as much as the girl who is built like a batpin. Prayer is all right once in awhile, but the man who puts blisters on his hands gets more than the man who puts blisters on his knees.

Any real woman will spend 25 cents to save a dime. Any undertaker will tell you that he would starve if he had to depend on the men who are always yelling that they are working themselves to death.

The brunettes are just as tight headed as the blonds. What has become of the old fashioned girl who used to get bedquills and flannel petticoats for wedding presents?

Anyway, Adam didn't have to sit around at night and listen to Eve gadding that she wished she had some decent clothes to wear like other women.

KENTUCKY EDITOR

Who Has Scored Great Success In Tour Business

Some eleven years ago, a railroad official urged a friend of his, a newspaper man at Versailles, Ky., to conduct a party from Central Kentucky to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis.

The railroad man assured his friend that the latter was better fitted to direct a personally conducted tour than any other man in the State. Yet when the editor met his first party of thirty people in the gray dawn of the morning at the local railroad station, he little thought that he was inaugurating one of the important tour agencies of the country. But so it was and Bowmar's Tours are now a household word over a very large territory.

The editor was Daniel M. Bowmar. He gave his party an extra fine trip for a moderate price which included everything, secured for them special privileges not enjoyed by the average exposition visitor and brought them home enthusiastic and happy, feeling that they had seen everything which it was possible to see and had done everything which it was possible to do.

And so Editor Bowmar was urged to get up another party and another, and soon he was conducting tours to Niagara Falls, to Atlantic City, to the Canadian cities, to Yellowstone Park and the far West, to the Mardi Gras at New Orleans, to New York, Philadelphia, Washington—everywhere.

In fact, the thing grew like a snowball, and Editor Bowmar had a big tour business on his hands in a few years. Good service did it. What Mr. Bowmar does not know about points of interest in the territory covered by his tours could be put in a very small pamphlet, while the accurate information which he has gathered in nearly twelve years on the subject of American travel would fill several volumes the size of Webster's International Dictionary.

His really enormous list of personal friends in every part of the Union has undoubtedly contributed much to his success and prestige as a tour conductor. It has enabled him to give to his parties special pleasures and opportunities which would not come to the individual traveler. Once in Cleveland one of the Bowmar parties had the pleasure of being presented to John D. Rockefeller. The Corcoran Art Gallery in Washington, which every one knows is always "hermetically sealed" during the summer months, was thrown open to Mr. Bowmar and the members of his party in August, as an extraordinary courtesy, by special order of the trustees. At Natchez, Miss., they were guests of honor of the Natchez Chamber of Commerce. One time they were all served off gold plates in a handsome private dining room of the most exclusive hotel in the East. Patrons of Bowmar's Tours are usually the recipients of much attention and unusual courtesies. While Mr. Bowmar does not guarantee these "extras," some charming thing is quite likely to bob up which was not in the itinerary.

But the great point about "Bowmar's Tours" is the service. This is Mr. Bowmar's hobby. He says: "Most Americans travel for rest and relaxation. They want a maximum of pleasure and interest with the smallest reducible minimum of responsibility. That's the ideal for a tour agency to work towards."

Bowmar's Tours have worked for that and attained it. They are moderate priced, but no tours under personal escort in the country surpass them in service. Mr. Bowmar accompanied every party.

The parties are always harmonious and there is an atmosphere of good feeling and you are certain to meet nice congenial people and no other kind. The "all-expense" feature is another of Mr. Bowmar's hobbies. "The American people are liberal," said he, "but they are business-like and accurate and they like to know in advance what the whole thing will cost. I tell them I don't deal in glittering generalities. I give my patrons an itemized statement of everything that is to be included. They don't meet with unpleasant financial surprises on the trip."

A big Bowmar tour for the coming summer is a four week's trip through the West to the California expositions starting August 2. For more than a year Mr. Bowmar has been engaged in working out details of this tour. The itinerary includes visits in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Santa Barbara and San Diego, California, stopovers at the Grand Canyon and in Denver, Colorado Springs and Manitou, Colorado, and Salt Lake City, Utah. There will be other Bowmar tours in July and September to Atlantic City, New York and Washington and to Niagara Falls and Canada.

The thousands of people who saw Beachey perform his death-defying flights at the Kentucky State Fair in Louisville last fall could not but wonder at the nerve of the man and marvel at the fact that he had lived through many such perilous exhibitions. He is gone, but he will not be forgotten soon by those who have shuddered as they watched him in his reckless dips, dives and somersaults in his fragile flying machine thousands of feet in air.

WELL KNOWN SOUTHERN WOMAN ON VERGE OF DISPAIR

I Hope Every Woman Suffering As I Was Will Try Andes' Declares Mrs. Hoskins.

Tremendous Demand For New Preparation.

Mrs. W. H. Hoskins of 512 Market street, Chattanooga, Tenn., made this statement about Andes, the preparation that is accomplishing such remarkable results here:

"For years I have been in a rundown condition, nervous, weak and dizzy. I was actually so nervous that any sudden noise or excitement would produce a palpitation of my heart that frightened me. I had nervous headaches and when they came on it seemed as if tight bands were drawn around my head. I shudder when I think of these sick headaches. My stomach was weak. I could not digest the lightest kinds of food. Any food of solid nature caused nausea and sickening sensation remained for hours. My misery was almost unbearable, my sleep was never sound, and I felt tired and worn out all the time, my condition was deplorable one, nothing I have used helped me at all. I was on the verge of giving up in despair when a neighbor pleaded with me to try Andes' Great Prescription. I purchased a bottle and began to improve soon as I had finished a bottle. I have now used four bottles, my nervousness and dizziness has disappeared. My headache has gone and my strength is returning every day. My appetite and digestion has improved and I am so much better in every way. Andes' Prescription is the only medicine that has ever really helped me. I hope every poor woman suffering as I was will try it, hundreds of other men and women who are suffering with similar complaints are now testifying to the marvelous merits of Andes' Great Prescription. The demand for the medicine is tremendous all over Kentucky. They are sold in Lancaster by the McRoberts Drug Store."

GARRARD COUNTY MAN SEES SEVEN MEN KILLED IN GEORGIA TOWN.

Mr. Eugene Sutton, a former Garrard county boy and a brother of Mrs. J. E. Dickerson, had quite a harrowing experience in Brunswick Ga., a few weeks ago. It was at this place where Monroe Phillips killed six people and was in turn killed by one of the citizens. Mr. Sutton had an office in the building in which the shooting began and only escaped by a mere miracle. He was an unwilling witness to the whole tragedy being hidden behind a post to escape the bullets from the enraged man. He saw seven men killed and about twenty-five wounded. Mr. Sutton is to be congratulated upon his narrow escape.

COURT OF APPEALS.

To Pass On Consolidated School Case Today.

The suit in the Garrard Circuit Court over the collection of the taxes in the Buena Vista Consolidated School District was heard by Judge Hardin last Thursday, and after considerable argument by the attorneys for both sides it was agreed that the temporary injunction should remain until today, March 25, 1915, when the case will be heard by the Court of Appeals at Frankfort. The only way that the case could be taken at this time to the Court of Appeals was by a continuation of the injunction, and in order to get the case heard by the Court of Appeals the injunction was by agreement of parties continued. The case will be argued today in the Courts of Appeals by Col. E. H. Gaitner and R. H. Tomlinson attorneys for the plaintiff, and County Attorney, G. C. Walker and J. E. Robinson, attorneys for the defendant.

HUNDREDS RUSH TO GET TANLAC

Cooper Besieged With Callers Who Want Famous Medicine.

Louisville, March 25, Hundreds are now calling almost daily to meet L. T. Cooper, the noted visitor, and to find out just how his famous medicine, Tanlac, is sold, how it is prepared and what the preparation actually looks like.

In commenting upon the rush to meet Mr. Cooper and obtain his celebrated medicine, the manager of the Taylor-Isaacs store, said:

"The success of the opening of the introductory sale of Tanlac exceeded our expectation. We have been agreeably surprised by the knowledge the public seems to have of the preparation. While many came just to meet Mr. Cooper and see what the medicine really looked like, equally as many came prepared to obtain the preparation. These people simply asked for Tanlac, and the facility with which the medicine was distributed throughout the day proved somewhat of a revelation to many of our older men."

Mr. Cooper said: "I am, indeed, gratified to see such marked enthusiasm, and I feel justified in predicting that Tanlac will prove just as successful in Louisville as it has in the larger cities. I do not believe that I am overestimating the success of the medicine when I state that I am confident that from three to five thousand people will call and obtain Tanlac during this week."

Mr. Cooper was asked about the charitable work he intended to perform in Louisville. He replied: "Yes it is true that I have written the Associated Charities asking that organization to furnish me, as soon as practicable, with the names and addresses of at least fifty of the most deserving poor families of your city, whom I propose to help. I have also written St. Joseph's Orphans' Home, offering certain contributions. I shall communicate with similar institutions within a few days with the view of endorsing their noble efforts by assisting them in some substantial way."

"In conformity with my usual custom of encouraging the hospitals, I will make special concessions with reference to supplying such institutions of your city with Tanlac, as I consider the preparation a superior tonic in all cases of convalescence."

The famous medicine, Tanlac, can now be bought in Lancaster only at R. E. McRoberts drug store.

LARGE CROWD.

LITTLE DOING.

The above caption tells about all that was done here last Monday, it being county court day. The crowd was all that could be expected on such a day, for it was a typical March one, and every line of trading was exceedingly dull. Owing to the strict cattle quarantine, which is being enforced to the letter, there was absolutely no cattle to be seen in, or near town. A few mules changed hands at low prices, although quite a number were for sale, there were practically no buyers. Mr. W. B. Burton purchased a mule of J. H. Perkins for $92.50, one of Dan Ray for $125 and one of Charlie Thompson for $125. Frank Arnold sold a nice one to Lee Palmer for $170. There was no demand for horses at any price.

Glee Club of Transylvania University Concert, 20 superb voices. Quartet, Soloist and side splitting farce. At school auditorium Tuesday March 30th, at 8 p. m. Reserved seats on sale at McRoberts Drug Store, 50c general admission, adults 35c, children under 14, 25c.

"Yes, sah," was the prompt rejoinder of Aunt Dinah. "dey hab jes got dat t'ing down so fine dat der han't no bird what has got anything on 'em." "Am dat so?" reflectively returned Uncle Rastus. "Well, whenever yo' see one ob dem flyin' machines men settin' fast asleep holdin on to de limb ob a tree wid one foot jes yo' call me ter come an' tak a look."

DAR'S TROUBLE IN DE LAN'.

Will Kaitenbacker has this to say in yesterday's Louisville Times:

From the unrestrained talk going on there is "trouble in de lan'" with the so-called "slate makers." Some of those who have for years been regarded as "cogs" in the "machine" now say that there is mutiny and open rebellion in the camp, and they employ such terms as "treachery" and "double-cross" to express their opinion of their erstwhile colleagues and the crowd with which they trained so long. As a result the "cat is being let out of the bag" in last year's senatorial race, and there have been some interesting side lights on the various deals that figured in that contest. They are also saying that the "machine" is meeting with many rebuffs in its effort to get support for "slate" program, the most frequent answer being "nothing doing" from heretofore ardent supporters of the "organization."

The Womens Club

(Edited By The Womens Club.)

Spring is fast approaching, and the Womens Club hopes to keep up its record in a civic and altruistic way by calling attention to a cleaning up day, planting flower seed on unsightly plots and by a fly and rat campaign. Every yard, lawn, vacant lot and side walk should receive attention when the first warm days arrive. Everyone should get busy.

Strange to say, we hear no talk at this season of the year of swatting the fly, when it is the season of all seasons, to get in the best work by swatting the breeding places. The campaign last year was a signal success, but it must not be supposed that the fly has lost his most distinguishing characteristic--the ability to come back. He will be back. Even now he is evolving in his own peculiar way, and when the first warm bright days come to herald the springtime, the fly will come too. He is as inevitable as the tax collector. The question is: Will we be ready to receive him?

As matters stand now, if we can judge by the straws in the wind, the home guard will be well mobilized to resist the invasion, for the civic department of the womens club is going after the fly which means that a horde of him vaster than the army that Hannibal took across the Alps will be slain this summer, but even this does not mean the fly will be eradicated for when this horde is killed there will be another horde advancing of equal proportions.

Lord Kitchner will put a new army of 1,000,000 men in the field on May 1, but this great organization would look like a squad of section hands in comparison with the fly crop of 1915 if Musca Domestica could be metamorphosed into the bulk of a man.

Let no one repose under the delusion that the fly can be wiped out at a single swatting or in a single summer. Eternal vigilance is the watchword. Swat early and often! Swat the debris, the stables, the vaults and the garbage cans. Begin now and there will not be so many flies to catch in the fly traps.

The last club meeting was conducted by Miss Joan Mount, assisted by Miss Sallie Elkin and Mrs. Buckner Spindle. Miss Elkin gave a delightful talk on Turner as a man also showing reproductions of his most noted pictures. Miss Mount took up the life and works of Gainsborough which she handled in an admirable way. Mrs. Spindle talked of her visit to the National gallery and her impression of the pictures under discussion, which she had seen there.

Quite a number of women have received invitations to attend an exhibit of paintings and oriental rugs to be held in the Elks Club rooms at Danville today and tomorrow. The Danville members of the league of art and crafts extend a cordial invitation to all. The exhibition belongs to C. F. Brower and Co., the same exhibit he has promised us in the fall. Our women are disappointed we cannot have it now, but Mr. Brower writes it will be impossible at this time.

The Womens Club wishes to thank Mr. Harry Anderson for two beautiful pictures, beautifully framed. The way these pictures are framed proves Mr. Anderson an expert at the business.

Married on St. Patrick's Day

By LOUISE B. CUMMINGS

There is no ceiling that would seem to cause so much suffering from sympathy as a person employed in a manufactory or on a railroad to break the news to an operative's family that he has been killed. Where there are a large number of employees there is usually such a person, for there is a certain percentage of workmen killed every year.

Kathleen O'Rourke and Patrick Cogan met at a ball on the evening of St. Patrick's day, and Pat had asked her to dance with him many times. Afterward he invited her to go to a moving picture show with him. From that time forward they were together when not at work, and it was evident they were about to make a match.

But Pat had a mother to support, and Kathleen, who was an orphan, was a mother to a little brother and a sister. So they couldn't marry until they had laid up something. They both worked in the same factory, and each lived in a house built on the premises by the company to be used for homes for its employees. So they saw a great deal of each other.

They agreed that when their wedding occurred it should take place on the anniversary of their meeting, which was the evening before St. Patrick's day. When this first anniversary came around Pat had saved $400, and Kathleen had saved $300, and they decided that if they did as well the next year they would be married the evening before St. Patrick's day.

On the first of the year they counted up their savings and interest and concluded that with their nest egg they might be married and have enough for themselves and those dependent upon them. Kathleen bought what clothes she would need to last a year after her marriage, and in due time the banns were published in church. Finding it inconvenient to be married on the very day they had planned, March 16, they set their wedding day for the 15th. This was partly because Pat was one of the committee of arrangements for the St. Patrick's day parade and was to lead his society on that occasion.

When the hour came for the wedding Pat did not appear. Kathleen, dressed in her bridal apparel, waited for him with a wildly beating heart lest something had happened to him. She went to the door a dozen times to look for him and finally stationed herself at a window where she could look up the street on which the workmen's cottages were built.

Presently she saw Owen MacTavish coming. MacTavish was known to every one connected with the plant as the company's bad news breaker, and many a woman's heart beat quick when she saw him approaching her house. Kathleen no sooner saw him coming than she fancied he would stop at her home to tell her that Pat had been killed. Before he reached the door she had fallen in a swoon.

Now, MacTavish did not stop at the O'Rourke cottage and was unconscious that he had frightened a girl there into a swoon. Kathleen was picked up by her friends, who had gathered to attend her to the church for the wedding. When she came to herself she looked about, dreading to see the bad news breaker, but he was not there. "Is he gone?" she asked.

"Who gone?"
"MacTavish."
"He hasn't been here."
"And Pat isn't dead?"
"Nobody's heard of his being dead."
"Thanks be to God."

But Pat did not appear, and no word seemed to have any news of him. Word was sent to the company's office to inquire for him, but no information was elicited.

Kathleen for awhile gave herself up to grief. She was uncertain whether Pat had met with foul play or whether he had deserted her. It would have been easier for the poor girl if she had known which of the two suppositions was correct, for it would have relieved her somewhat of suspense.

When St. Patrick's day in the morning came round Kathleen made up her mind that her lover had deserted her and with true Irish grit declared that there were as good fish in the sea as ever were caught. Then the children asked her to take them to see the parade, and she consented—not that she wished to do so, but that she did not care to disappoint them.

They were all standing on a stoop where they could see the parade over the heads of others, and the societies were moving past when who should appear marching at the head of one of them but Pat. He saw Kathleen, but she gave him a withering look and turned her back to him. Relinquishing the command to another, he left the ranks and joined her.

This was Pat's explanation of his conduct: An accident had occurred at a mine owned by the company some miles away, and a rescue party was leaving on a train. Pat was ordered aboard and, instead of being married, was engaged in digging out buried miners. He returned on the morning of St. Patrick's day only in time to take his place in the parade.

It required some time to placate the maiden, for she thought Pat might have at least sent her word as to what had happened, but the fact that he had been the means of saving the lives of a number of miners finally induced her to forgive him and go with him that afternoon to the church.

POULTRY and EGGS

RAISING CHICKENS.

Feeding and Care From Incubator Until Turned on Range.

Little chicks should not have anything to eat for at least thirty-six hours after leaving the shell. The reason for these hours of starvation is that the yolk is absorbed by the chick immediately before it breaks out of the shell, and must be allowed plenty of time to digest and pass through the bowels before any foreign substance is introduced.

In removing little chicks from the incubator to the brooder they should be gradually hardened to the outside

Not testing eggs in an incubator means loss. Eggs may be infertile; one not may kill all embryos or the poisoned air may weaken germs and cause chicks dead in shell or weaken hatch. A thermometer bulb resting on a set of infertile gives a false standard for live eggs with natural heat, and thus the machine runs too high and spoils the hatch.

air by slightly opening the incubator door, writes N. L. Harris, Kansas Agricultural college, in the Kansas Farmer. If hardened in this way there will be little danger of chilling the chicks in removing them from the one machine to the other.

Hard boiled eggs ground shell and all mixed with five times as much rolled oats as egg makes a most satisfactory first feed. A small amount only should be given, scattered on a clean board. This can usually be accomplished by tapping gently on the board with the finger nail, imitating the mother hen and setting the particles of feed in motion so that the chicks see them. A feed even more to my liking is to take the yolk of a raw egg and stir in rolled oats till it is a dry, crumbly mass. I like to feed this for the first week. Over this I sprinkle a little chick grit, pulverized charcoal and granulated bone. If possible I feed sour milk from the first and plenty of clean, fresh water always. Gradually after the first day I add finely cracked wheat and corn or Kaffir. Twice daily feed in a shallow trough all that will be consumed in twenty minutes of a dry mash composed by weight as follows: Bran, two parts; cornmeal, one part; and after the second week fine beef scrap, one-fourth part. I find little chicks do not relish shorts.

The ration suggested above is not changed until the chicks go out on the range, when the mash may be hopper feed, the cracked grain being scattered near the coops for the first feed each morning. At noon a wet mash, the same as the dry, may be fed advantageously, especially during the very hot weather, and at night another feed of grain scattered where it can be easily found and plenty of it.

Personally I do not like the method of hopper feeding for the first eight weeks as is recommended by some very successful poultrymen. One is likely to neglect his chicks, and there is not the intimate knowledge of the flock such as is gained by feeding from the hand.

Milk For Egg Production. Experiments carried out at the New Jersey experiment station have shown that the use of sour milk will increase egg production as much as 58 per cent over birds of the same kind and age who did not receive sour milk. When feeding skim milk care should be taken to keep the vessel clean and sweet. An abundant supply of sharp, coarse grit, as well as ground oyster shell, should be kept before the birds constantly. The grit aids digestion and the oyster shell furnishes carbonate of lime for the eggshell. The floor of the pen for the house should be covered to a depth of from eight to ten inches with a good coarse straw litter, which should be kept clean and dry. This litter will furnish exercise for the birds.

Managing the Incubator. In the use of incubators and brooders one must strictly follow the directions of the manufacturer. As the instructions for operating vary somewhat with different machines, no specific directions can be given covering all points. In general, fill the lamp daily and keep the wick clean. After testing the eggs on the seventh day, turn them twice and cool them once a day until the eighteenth day. Do not open after that until the hatch is complete.

THE CIGARETTE LAW.

The last legislature passed an act regulating the sale of cigarettes to boys under eighteen.

This is one of those measures that needs to have back of it an aggressive public opinion. It is the regulation of personal habits; it is the exercise by the State of the police power for the purpose of preventing temptations being thrown in the path of the young and the unsuspecting, the State owes a duty to the children to protect them from commercialized temptation. The police authorities have no option in the matter. The Legislature acts and the authorities are required to enforce its decrees.

MARK GOINS.

Markabury, - Kentucky, Phone 95.

Stop! Look! Listen!

They are shipping horses and mules out of our country by the thousands and it seems to me the best time in the world to raise all we can.

Old Black Joe, Young Napo and Silver Silk will make the season 1915 at Ben Ham's barn, Hyattsville, Ky.

OLD BLACK JOE

A four-year-old black Jack, over 15 hands, extra heavy body and large bone and has proven to be an excellent breeder. The first mule that he sired, sold for $90.00 cash, at weaning time. Any Jack that will sire a mule that sold for $90.00, last fall, deserves the patronage of the country.

YOUNG NAPO

This is a two-year-old, coming three that bids fair to make a splendid Jack. He is by Napoleon 3rd, the largest Jack that I have ever seen and out of a John Morgan Jennet. He will be permitted to serve a limited number of mares.

SILVER SILK

A 54 inch pony, beautifully marked with white and black, and large enough to be useful not the play thing size. He is a grand son of Dock Grey and out of an excellent pony mare. They will each stand at $8.00 to insure a living colt.

A Lien retained on all colts until season is paid and the season is due from the man who bred mare if parted without our consent. Very careful, but not responsible for accidents.

Bleucher 46158, record 2294, trial mile 2:14, half in 1:36, last quarter in 32 seconds, is a handsome seal brown horse, and will weigh 1100 pounds. He greatly resembles his good sire Silent Brook and is out of Clay, by the great Futurity sire Moko.

Foreign demand marked the exhaustion of foreign supply and we may expect the call for our horses to continue long after the war is over. Our advice to mare owners is to breed their mares and to breed them to stallions of merit and proven worth as sires. Bleucher is just the type to produce the colts that will supply the demand. His colts have proven fine, with nice head and neck and plenty of bone and conformation.

This great trotting Stallion will make the season of 1915 at my stable in Lancaster, Kentucky, at

Barlowe

I will also stand this beautiful Shetland Stallion for the season of 1915 at my stable in Lancaster, Ky., at

THE TALLEST FLAGPOLE

A fitting symbol of the mighty forests of the West is Astoria's flagpole, the tallest in the world, which floats the Stars and Stripes 241 feet above the Panama-Pacific Exposition seawall at the corner of the Oregon building, says the San Francisco Chronicle.

The stick, for it is a single stick of timber, is actually 251 feet long, but ten feet of its butt is embedded in a 200-ton block of solid concrete, which, without other stays, holds the pole upright against the wind.

The pole was shaped from the trunk of a Douglas fir, which, as it originally stood in the Oregon forest, towered 347 feet in the air, and might have matched in height though not in girth, against any but the loftiest of the California sequoias.

Looking up at the great flagstaff it is hard to realize that it weighs upward of 46 tons, and that there is lumber enough in it to build five ordinary eight-room houses. Its great height gives it an appearance of slenderness and lightness.

Just to transport this pole and set it up, Russell Hawkins and citizens of Astoria spent nearly enough thousands of dollars to build several of the houses its lumber might construct.

1915 GIRL WILL WEAR WIDE

SKIRTS AND TIGHT

WAISTS.

The 1915 girl is going to be a combination of military 1915 and the frills and tight, well-defined waist-line and snug shoulders of 1830. The military fad will be carried into supremacy far into the summer and the gown planned promise to be quaintly attractive in outline.

Miss 1915 will have a wide, flaring short skirt, a little wider and a little shorter than now, and her bodice will be close fitting. The collars are new, too, and are placed on removable gimpes of net, chiffon, organdie or lace, and button in front and are not nearly so close-fitting as formerly.

They will be cut high with a flaring upper-edge arranged in pleats in the back.

From the Broadway slouch the new girl of the year will adopt an erect swinging stride, and in this way the reflection of the European war will be seen in woman's dress rather than in the cut, fabric and color.

WHY IS LANCASTER FIRM?

Because Its Citizens Have Learned The Truth.

After reading this generous and encouraging report from Mr. Austin, those who have the misfortune to suffer, as he did, will naturally long to get similar relief. But to get the same good as Mr. Austin had, you should get the same remedy. There are of course, other kidney pills the same as Doan's. That is why Lancaster people demand the genuine.

I. D. Austin, blacksmith, Stanford Pike, Lancaster, Ky. says: "I had weak kidneys and the kidney secretions were irregular in passage. My back pained me. Doan's Kidney Pills strengthened me in every way."

The above statement must carry conviction to the mind of every reader. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Austin had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c at all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo N. Y.

A GRAVE SITUATION.

Today America is in distress because she has no supply of dyestuffs, no abundance of wool. Yet England declares that if we undertake to secure these materials of Germany she will stop our ships on the high seas and confiscate their cargoes.

Germany declares that unless we can induce England to remove her embargo on food, and restore the free list of the London Conference, Germany cannot, with the best intention in the world, give us the assurance to which, as a neutral, we are entitled.

The neutrality of the sea is a part of the law of nations. It was considered as inviolate as the neutrality of Belgium itself.

Yet today both of these nations, living by a new gospel of necessity, declare their purpose no longer to recognize it, but by their orders to make the Atlantic "a closed sea."

It is a grave situation which confronts neutral nations, and in the interest of civilization these Orders-in-Council, these Berlin decrees, must be abrogated.

GERMANY'S BREAD DEFICIT.

Beef and Pork in Germany have been for many years extremely scarce, and on reliable authority, as the German press witness, horse, not to say dog, has been as popular a viand as the chicken or the calf. This year, however, there is also a bread shortage. The protective policy which regulates Germany's importing business has not redounded to the comfort of what Liebel proudly styled "the proletarian aristocracy."

The potato famine in Ireland with all its fearful and melancholy incidents finds at present some parallel in the wheat famine of Germany's overpopulated kingdoms and provinces. The empire of Kaiser William cannot feed its people excepting by means of costly importations from the far Eastern and Western worlds. Even the finest harvests of Westphalia and Bavaria fail to fill the mouths of the teeming millions that hold the land saved for them by the valor of Arminius. We learn from The Continental Correspondence (Berlin) this condition of things is keeping the country poor. According to Goldsmith.

"There was a time, ere England's ills began,
When every rood of land maintained its man."

At present in Germany every rood of land does not maintain its man.

Another Message
To the Business Men of Lancaster

Business fights shy of dead towns. A sure sign of a dead one is the lack of local pride. People who live in a live, prosperous town show it. Their stores are attractive, their streets clean, their homes are well painted.

Nothing shows a lack of pride, a lack of prosperity, like paint-hungry buildings. Let's paint up. As the most durable and economical paint, we recommend

FACTS

This is the time of the year when most every one is thinking of purchasing a New Vehicle. As we are equally interested we would like to call on you in person and talk the matter over. As this is impossible we are taking this means of reaching you. We are manufacturers of BUGGIES that are in a class to themselves, built absolutely different from any other buggy on the market. More merit, more strength, more durability than any other buggy manufactured today. We are willing to compare point to point with the best buggy in the country and leave the decision to you. We are truly proud of the success we have had in the buggy business, and at present time are using every means possible to show you that we have an article that is superior in quality, and the selling system we are using puts them out in cheapest possible manner to reach the trade.

I have been in the buggy business for 15 years in Danville, never have I promised to save you from $25.00 to $50.00 on a job. In no case have we ever offered to sell you a good buggy for nothing, or for less than material cost. I have no desire to deceive you. One thing I wish to deeply impress upon you is that we are selling an

Honest Built Buggy at an Honest Price, Give You One Hundred Cents Worth for Every Dollar You Spend

There is no middle mans profits. When talking to our customers we refer them to some users of Arnold's Buggies, usually some liveryman who has used the buggy several years, who will tell you of their highest standard quality. Most any buggy factory can build you a good buggy on paper, and from the description they give it seems as though they were of the best material and perfectly constructed. It certainly does sound good when you read about them. The price is exceedingly low, even lower than the stock can be bought for a good job, and guaranteed in some cases for two years. We never claim to save you from $25.00 to $50.00 a job, but we do save you in the first cost and in service. The question we would like to know if they are so good, what liveryman uses these buggies and what success he has had.

If you would like to have the address of some of our livery customers we will gladly furnish same. All we ask is to give us a chance before placing your spring order. We have the largest livery trade in the state. This is our first year to build a $100.00 job; full leather top, cushions and back, leather trimmings throughout, Arnold's patent gear, Pinneo & Daniels Wheels, best Kelly rubber tires for the small sum of $100.00. We also manufacture the buggies we have previously made at $115.00 and $125.00 in plain top, $125.00 and $135.00 in storm top, and the light buggy up as high as $150.00. We make a specialty of rubber tiring, trimming, painting and repairing. We want to assure you that we appreciate your past trade and solicit your future business.

TWILIGHT SLEEPERS.

The "twilight sleep" idea is a beautiful one. Anything that tends to reduce pain and suffering is to be welcomed. But twilight sleep is nothing new in this part of the country. We know of some towns that are in a chronic state of twilight slumber and they will never "come to". Some of our own citizens, mentioning no names, go about from day to day in a never ending twilight slumber. And looking over our list of delinquent subscribers makes us rise to inquire what the doctors use to bring the twilight sleepers out of the trance. Send us the formula, for there are a few subjects on that list whom we would like to awaken. Did we call them twilight sleepers? Suffering cats! The deepest, blackest midnight could not begin to equal the darkness and depth of their slumbers.
